Most Rev. George Leo Leech
D.D., J.C.D.
Bishop of Harrisburg

An inspiring leader and kind friend, Bishop Leech has ever been held in high esteem by the Students of Mount Carmel Catholic High. We shall always appreciate his firm hand and sincere interest in all our undertakings.

In the years to come we shall remember Monsignor Clarke for his untiring efforts and inspiration in furthering our Catholic education. Through his efforts our school has soared high in standards of education, efficiency, and progress.

Social . .

In the interests of Catholic Action F. Kline, R. Stavinski, A. McManus, J. Watkins, J. Schneider, J. McGill, A. Yost further themselves to be alert, alive, and courageous in their faith.

L. Tancredi brings forth an interesting discussion in National Problems as the studious class observes.

Junior vocalists pause to hear the story of, "Chanson du Toreador."

Commercial Interests

"Look ahead and you won't go wrong", is the motto of this Junior typing class as their touch sends messages flying across the paper.

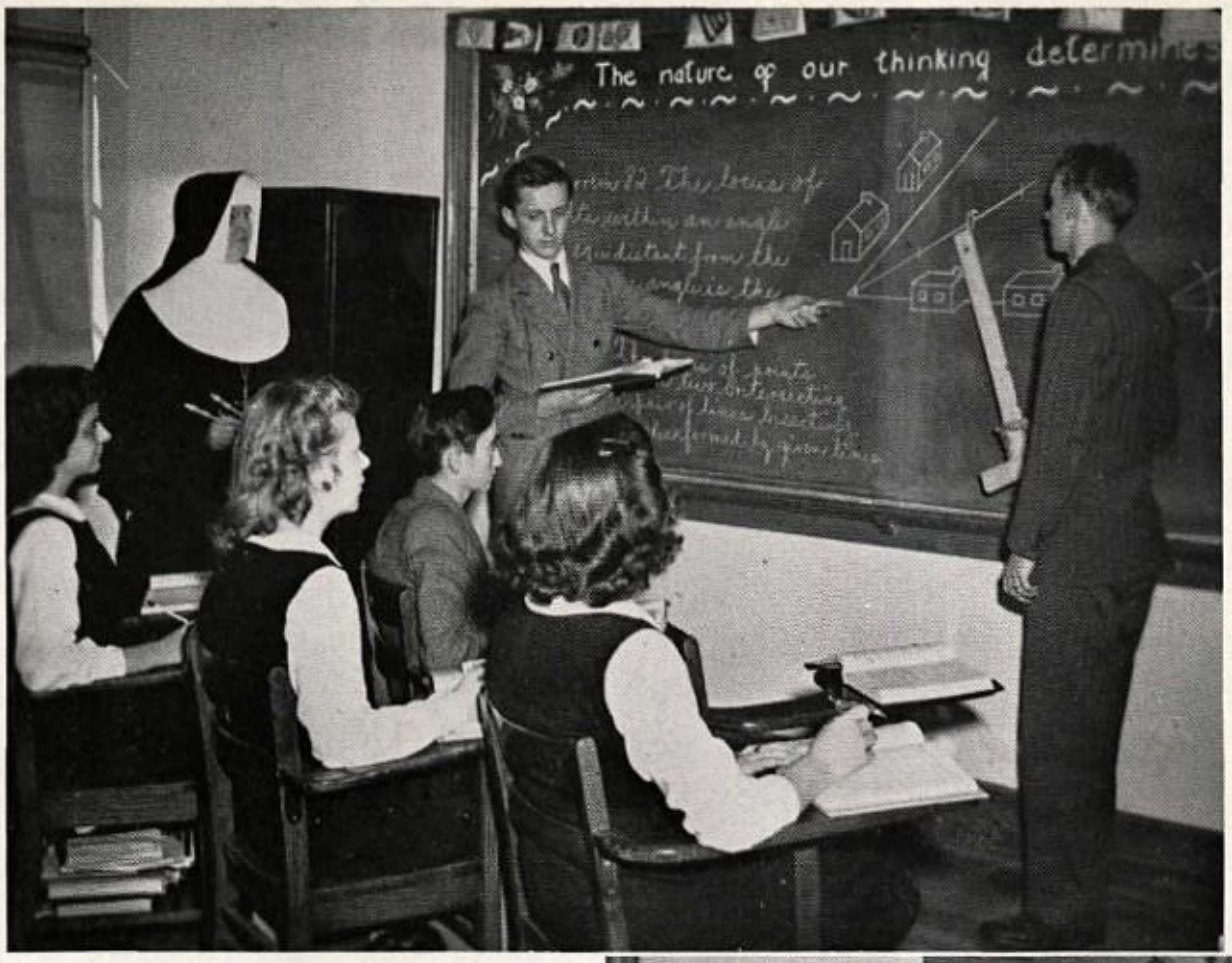
R. Neary, W. Mannion, and A. Di Cinque make preparations for a visualized chemistry lesson.

Seniors Excel In Science

Sine, cosine, tangent ring through the air as earnest students solve problems assigned by Sister Philomena Marie.

These aspiring physicists, J. Mannion, E. Colross, B. Kopfinger, E. McHugh, L. Loeper, J. Del Vecchio are busily engaged in the brighter side of physics – experimenting.

in Social . .



V. Bottari and F. Pulaski explain a problem to geometry students under the experienced eye of Sister Evangelist.

D. Galitski and T. Pogash act a short French play for the Senior French class.

Till the end of time—historians such as E. Muldowney, R. Dallavalle, H. Hennessey, J. Boylan, P. Connaghan, and G. Schiavone will be kept busy analyzing the terms of treaties.

Business . . .

The type we are proud of! Tap, tap, click the keys; ding dong, rings the bell, while this group of senior secretaries rhythmically glide their fingers over the keyboard under the watchful eye of Sister Odilia.

Accomplished seniors enjoy a respite in daily work by striving to settle current problems by debate. The participants are G. Pinamonti, C. Pulaski, E. McHugh, V. Bottari, J. Ibanez, G. Battista, and L. Oberosler.

Integrity

Debits, credits, trial balance — not any of these terms cause F. Petruskevich, J. Muldowney, T. Hirsch, M. Ramsey, G. Pinamonti, P. Rooney to ponder as they delve into the routine of bookkeeping.

Shorthand must not only be written but read. J. Duggan is alert as E. Stutz holds up shorthand flash cards.

Things We

Never a dull moment nor an idle one. G. Schiavone, our class's famed pianist, entertains during the lunch hour.

Attribute our picturesque and appropriate bulletin boards to this group of senior decorators, E. Bevivino, R. Kutchen, G. Battista, T. Hirsch.

Is your heat turned off? Are your desks broken? If so, come to Senior B. These boys will gladly give up classes and duties to satisfy your needs.

ACTIVITIES . . .

Happy Harmony

The air will soon be alive with lilting melodies as the Senior Glee Club, E. Muldowney, J. McCullion, C. Pulaski, P. Rooney, J. Smith, T. Pranske. D. Galitski, and R. Kutchen stands ready to begin a recital, lead by B. Sullivan, pianist.

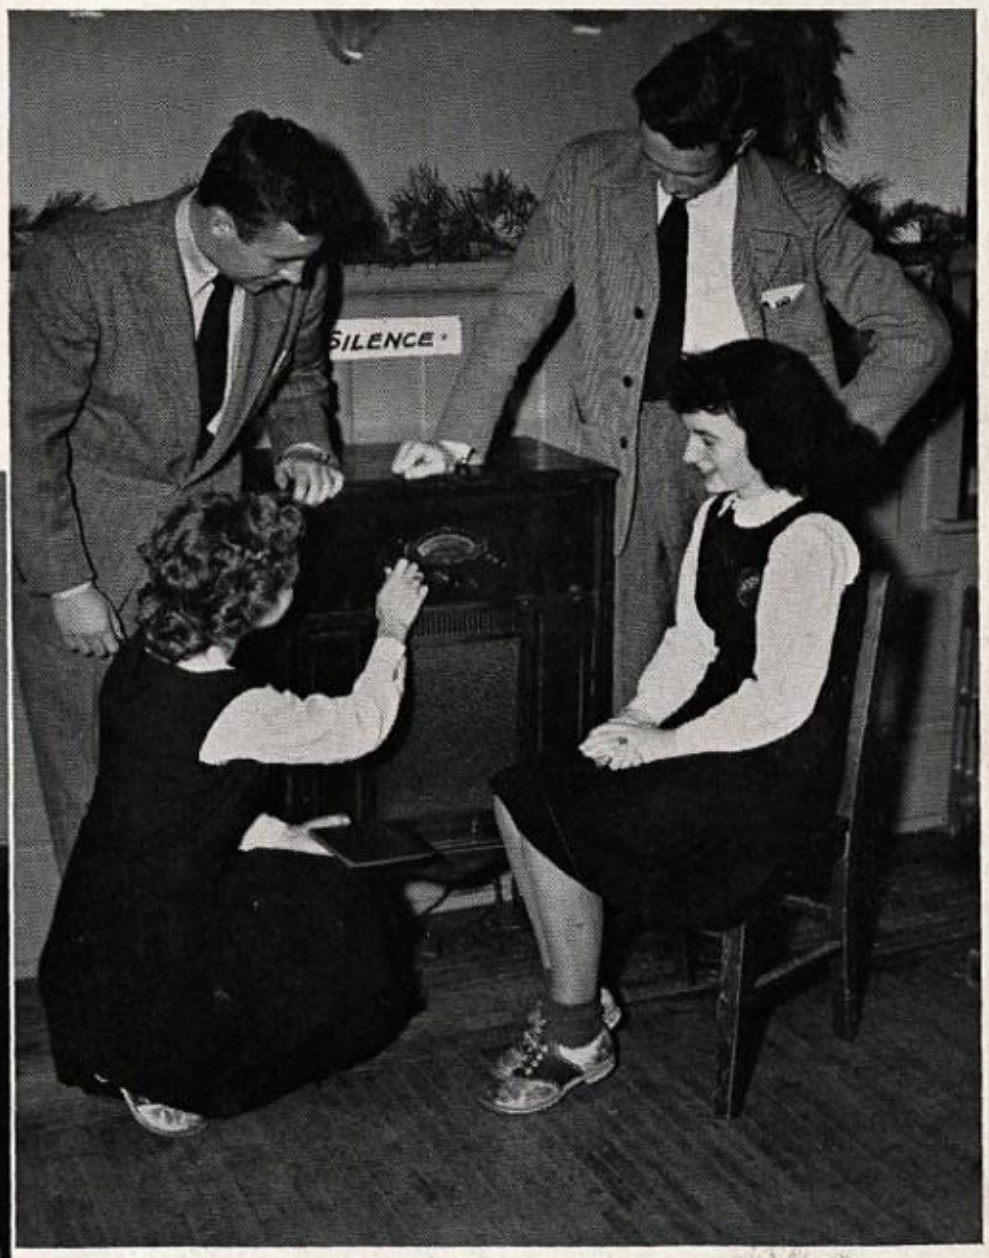
Another division of our Senior Glee Club entertains at a musicale. These charming song birds are, J. McManus, A. McNamara, A. M. Muldoon, E. Stutz, E. Bevivino, G. Manley, J. Roszkowski, C. Siedlecki, E. McHugh, and B. Sullivan, accompanist.

The delightful Junior Glee Club combines to entertain between acts of the Senior Play. Under the direction of J. Roszkowski, they contributed greatly to that colorful occasion.

Catholic Youth Organization

Miss Kathryn McCarthy, who has guided our parish Youth Council through its many diversified activities, and because of her diligent labors, it has developed into an organization of which we are very proud.

C. Y. O. officers gather material for discussion club. They are J. Malloy, Vice-president; J. McManus, Secretary; A. McNamara, Treasurer; J. Mannion, President.



The cast from one of the series of plays presented during Lent is T. Pranske, J. Roszkowski, R. Baxter, E. Bevivino, and D. Galitski.
